JUDGES PROFILE

Liz Ballantine, Whitespirit Samoyeds

I have had Samoyeds for over 35 years. Our involvement with the breed started when we took on a rescue with health problems. While her health meant she was only with us for a short time, we found we were hooked on the breed. In 1995 we brought home our first Samoyed pup, and then of course, we needed a friend for him and so we got another – from there to a houseful was a short step. I started showing in 1996 with our boy 'Beau', acquired from the well known Samont kennel and whilst I don't show a lot, I do generally enjoy what I do. We bred our first Whitespirit litter in 2002. We occasionally breed on a small scale and our emphasis has always been on health and fitness for function.

The working element of the breed was attractive to us and we started racing our Samoyeds in 1997 and we competed since then with all of our Samoyeds. In the UK, Aviemore is the biggest racing event and we have had the privilege of winning the two dog class 8 times, the four dog class twice and the 6 dog class on one memorable occasion. One of our two dog teams still holds the course record. While in the UK we seldom have the opportunity to run the dogs on snow, we have taken them to mainland Europe to train on snow as well.

My interest in construction led me to start judging the breed in 2000. I also judge other working and herding breeds such as Bearded Collies, Siberian Huskies, Border Collies etc.

I feel very privileged to have been invited to judge at your club championship show and thank the committee and all exhibitors.
